Description of Requirements

Context of the Requirement	As part of the overall UN reform process, the Delivering as One (DaO) in Rwanda was launched at the beginning of 2007 with the broad objective to improve the UN’s impact, coherence and efficiency. The first year (2007) was a year of preparation of the four pillars that are central to the Delivering as One initiative, namely: One Programme, One Budgetary Framework, One Leader & One Voice, and One Office. The United Nations Development Assistance Framework (UNDAF) 2008-2012 as well as the Common Operational Document (COD) was developed as central piece for the Delivering as One. In Rwanda’s context, the Delivering as One is strongly built on the principles of national ownership and leadership and aims at enhancing effectiveness, efficiency, and relevance of the UN in support of national development and poverty reduction efforts. The Delivering as One also aims to reduce transaction costs for Governments as well as decreasing overhead costs for the UN system and its partners. The UNCT is looking for a national consulting firm to undertake this exercise. The four Pillars of Delivering as One The Delivering as One (DaO) initiative involves all UN funds, programmes and specialised agencies in Rwanda in a joint reform process based on fundamental pillars, the “Four Ones”: One Programme, One Budgetary Framework, One Office, One Voice/One Leader. The reform process carried out along the five pillars aims at strengthening the overall impact of the UN system at the country level, ensuring a closer alignment of programmes and funding to national priorities, while increasing transparency and accountability. The UNDAF The United Nations Assistance Framework (UNDAF) 2013-2018 is the 5-year common strategic framework for all UN programming interventions in the country. The contents of the UNDAF are strictly aligned with and respond to the priorities identified by the Rwanda’s Economic Development and Poverty Reduction Strategy (EDPRS-2), also covering the same programming period 2013-2018, and Vision 2020. Various evaluations of the DaO in Rwanda such as the Country-led Evaluation and a comprehensive Comparative Advantage and Stakeholders Analysis (referred to as the Focus Study), and more

	recently the UNDAP midterm review have yielded anecdotal evidence of gaps in the UN communication activities and strategies UN Communications In line with the 2013 Standard Operating Procedures for DaO countries, Communicating as One must include a joint communications strategy, development and use of common tools, and common messaging and advocacy. Communicating as One ensures coherent messaging from the UN. It should assist with improving the quality of the dialogue with the Government of Rwanda, increase advocacy and help with highlighting results achieved by the UN at the country level. Communicating as one is critical for ensuring clear and consistent positioning of the UN and its vision at the national level; developing messages and policy positions; strengthening the outreach of the UN system by pooling efforts; supporting communication about the UN comparative advantages in the country to both internal and external stakeholders and avoiding message duplication, inconsistencies and fragmentation. It implies developing common messaging and joint communication on key issues where the UN is active in Rwanda. Communicating as One will improve the efficiency and effectiveness of common messages and communication products; by pooling expertise and resources. It will also play an important role in building support for the successful implementation of Delivering as One with external partners and UN staff.
