Description of the assignment: Developing training materials for a Human Development Module

Post Title and Level: International Individual Consultant

The proposed work of developing a training manual builds upon the earlier support provided by UNDP to NISR to develop Rwanda multi-dimensional poverty analysis reports. Several NISR staff were already trained in multi-dimensional poverty analysis as a part of this program and are ready to train other members of NISR. The manual will be used to train a number of NISR staff, other staffs from government ministries and departments as well as non-government policy staffs.
